

Neighbors Stage Gala Kiddie Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Hagenbaugh and Mr. and Mrs. William McDade were co-hosts at their third annual costume party last Saturday, Oct. 27. The party was held in the Hagenbaugh home at 1011 Felbar Ave.

Every year a theme is selected. This year's theme was "Kiddieland." All the guests came dressed as children, in short pants and little short skirts and hair ribbons. Frank Kelly came dressed as a baby in diapers, bonnet and booties.

Food was served informally and whenever the guests became hungry they could roast their own hot dogs in the patio fireplace. The guests spent the evening dancing.

Those attending were Messrs. and Meses. Barney Connoughton, Blake Welstead, Michael Gonta, Maurice Galyard, Galen Truesdale, Loren Kintz, Woody Stroman, Frank Kelly, Ted Meier, Ed Rankin, Harry Hughes, William Eide; Mrs. Leslie Moore, and the hosts.

Jewish Group Will Install

Gardena Valley Jewish Center annual dinner dance and installation of new officers to be held Sunday, Nov. 18, at 7 p.m. will have a special significance this year. Although this is the eighth installation, it is the first in the group's own center at 14725 S. Grammercy Pl. in Gardena.

Plans are under way to make this a gala event. A catered dinner will be served before the installation. A dance orchestra and entertainment will round out the evening.

The new director, Harold Wolpert, will install the officers and Lou Bereskin will act as master of ceremonies.

Anyone wishing to attend may contact Hank Charney, 14816 S. Miller, Gardena.

Plan Auction For Nov. 18

Lucky Willing Workers, a group devoted to raising funds for retarded children, held their regular monthly meeting last Friday at the Gardena Community Center.

Joe Diamond, the Torrance chairman of board of directors, announced the auction to be held Nov. 18 at the V.F.W. hall, 1822 Market St., in Gardena. Charles Welton, of the Gardena Chamber of Commerce, and L. Bereskin, a teacher in the Torrance school district, will be the auctioneers.

The merchandise will be donated by the merchants and residents of the South Bay area. An invitation to join the group is extended to anyone interested in the aims and goals of this club.

A letter of resignation was read from Thelma Powers of Lomita. Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Hopps were the guests during the evening at which time Mr. Hopps volunteered his help. Prizes were won by Mrs. Hopps. The next regular meeting will be held Nov. 28.

Spook Party For Guests

A "spooky" evening was guaranteed the guests who entered the Lloyd Clark home, 517 Paseo de las Estrellas, last Saturday Oct. 27. The door opened apparently by invisible spirits. Eerie noises and the sound of rattling chains greeted the guests who entered a darkened house. Finally, thoroughly "scared," the nervously giggling guest was led by a ghost into the party room.

Christina Clark and Carolyn Jones were co-hostesses at this eerie affair. The guests who had a hair-raising good time were Drey Wilson, Sheila Hogan, Jeanne Hazelton, Winkie Gilbert, M'lee Terry and Rosemary McIlraith.

Soroptimist Delegates at District Meet

Margaret Neff, president; Edna Walther and Frances Stephan, delegates of the Soroptimist International of Torrance and Gardena Club, represented the club at the two-day biennial parley held at the Beverly-Wilshire Hotel on Oct. 19-20. There were 300 Soroptimists attending from District 1 of the Pacific Region. The theme of the meeting was "Soroptimists: Powerful Potential for Peace and Progress."

Mrs. Emily N. Ziegler of San Diego, president of the American Federation of Soroptimist International, was the keynote speaker. The service projects in the Western Hemisphere were outlined, ranging from service to children to service to the aging.

"All we do in Soroptimist," said Mrs. Ziegler, "is based upon the foundation of spiritual values: Love thy neighbor as thyself!"

On Tuesday, Oct. 16, Margaret Neff and LaVilla McMillen represented the club at the City of Hope dinner, held at a Torrance restaurant.

Oct. 29, the regular meeting of the club, was a potluck held at the home of Mrs. W. E. Bowen in Hollywood Riviera. After dinner the hostess showed pictures of her recent trip to Japan. Helen Rodgers, who spent a year as librarian with the American Dependents' Schools in Yokohama, showed pictures she had taken during her stay there.

The next luncheon meeting of the club will be held Nov. 5 at a local restaurant.

Garden Club Will Sponsor Scout Troop

The monthly meeting of the Greenthumbers' Garden Club was held at the home of Mrs. Paul Kolleck. It was approved at the meeting that the Greenthumbers would sponsor a girl scout troop which had requested their sponsorship. The Greenthumbers also learned the identity of their new flower show and garden therapy chairman who is Mrs. Richard Handley.

Greenthumbers were privileged to hear A. J. Bruman speak on home landscaping and to view many slides depicting his work. Also present as a guest was Mrs. Frances Young, District 2A chairman of the California Garden Clubs, Inc., of which the Greenthumbers are a member club.

Also present as a guest was Mrs. Philip Jemison. The Greenthumbers attending were Meses Louis Wilhelm, Al Mategorin, Richard Handley, George Horton, John Fitzgerald, Eldon Sellmeyer, Paul Kolleck, Al Kosick, David Sheppard, Clarence Barrow, William Fitzgerald, and Earl Hubacek.

BORN-BAUGHAN

Announcement is being made today of the marriage of Irene G. Born of Gardena to Elwood C. Baughan of Gardena, formerly of Torrance. The couple were married Oct. 23 in Yuma, Ariz.

Mrs. Baughan came to Gardena from Chicago. Mr. Baughan is in the trucking business. They are making their home in Gardena.

FIRELADIES TO ELECT OFFICERS

Torrance Fireladies will meet Monday, Nov. 5, at the home of Mrs. Charles Reinstma, 916 Faysmith Ave. At this meeting the fourth anniversary of the group will be celebrated. New officers will be elected and an installation luncheon planned for later in the month.

ENTERS CONTEST

Miss Mickey Van Deventer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grover C. Van Deventer, has been selected as one of three students from the University of Redlands to compete in the Maid of Cotton contest to be held in Fresno next week end.

HOUSEGUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Boylan will entertain as houseguests on the week end of Nov. 10 Mr. and Mrs. Roy Buckley and two children of North Hollywood. The couple will be guests at the Dandierli's hobo dance.

Auxiliary Party Nov. 2

Eagles auxiliary of Redondo Beach will stage a Hollywood radio-TV party Nov. 2 at 8 p.m. Fun for the entire family has been planned. Carl Webster Pierce will do his magic tricks as he serves as master of ceremonies. Contestants will be chosen from the audience to vie for prizes.

A big "crazy" hat contest will be held and the prize will be a portable 21-inch barbecue. Judges for the contest will be the president of the Chamber of Commerce, Police Chief Curt Richardson, and City Attorney William MacFaden. Tickets may be obtained at the door or by calling Esthler Mullen. The hall where the party will be held is located at 128 S. Catalina, Redondo.
